

THE HERALD.

LYCURGUS BARRETT - Local Editor.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 11, 1880.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce Geo. W. Bunker as a candidate for Sheriff of Ohio county at the next August election, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election, August, 1880.

A. C. Ellis is a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Ohio county at the next August election, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election, August, 1880.

R. Murrell is a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk of Ohio County, subject to the action of the Democratic party. August Election 1880.

S. D. Duke has a cow with twin calves.

Call at the Hartford House and see the genuine machine.

We learn that Ignatius Wimsatt is very sick with pneumonia.

Wm. G. Eades, of Owensboro is in town selling the White Sewing Machine.

For sore throat, gargle with Pico's Cure, mixed with a little water. Relief is instant.

If you want to see a crowded stable just walk around to Henry Fields' on a public day.

Susie, little daughter of Thos. J. and Charlotte Lowe, died last week of measles and pneumonia.

BORN, to the wife of Eugene A. S. Maddox, January 28th, 1880, a son, Forest—weight, 10 pounds.

Mr. T. Larkin Griffin is quite sick with a combination of diseases, but is not thought to be dangerous.

Our Post Master is sick with the (Beaver) Dam measles. He "coughs" through the telephone, we guess.

A little daughter of Wm. H. Taylor is quite sick, and her recovery doubtful—she had measles and mumps and then took pneumonia.

Subscribers to this paper for 1880, who may in full for the year, get a valuable book of 100 pages, free. Call early pay up, and obtain the premium. If.

There have been 100 cases of measles in town up to this writing in the last few weeks. In addition, there have been several cases of the mumps and whooping-cough. So far there have been no deaths from these diseases.

All persons indebted to Dr. J. E. Pendleton by note or account, before Jan. 1st 1879, are requested to call at my office, upstairs opposite HERALD office, and settle the same.

CHAS. M. PENDLETON, 51 tf Collector of claims.

We will sell our best coffee at 20 cts. per pound. A No. 1 Davies county whisky at 50 cts. per quart. We also have a lot of ladies' and men's over-shoes at or near cost.

ROGERS & KING, 43 tf BUREAU, KY.

The second session of the Hartford Academy, in charge of Malcolm McIntyre, A. B., as principal, will begin next Monday. This session of the school will be taught at Masonic Hall. See his advertisement in another column.

The 24 quarterly meeting of the Hartford Circuit, of the M. E. Church, was held at this place on last Saturday and Sunday. Rev. G. H. Hayes, Presiding Elder, was present and quite an interesting meeting was held. On account of sickness in town the meeting was not protracted.

The Home Guide, or A Book by 500 Ladies, is a volume of 160 pages, containing 1,000 practical recipes and hints on Cookery, the Household, the Toilet, the Sick Room, etc., a copy of which we present to every subscriber who pays in full for 1880. Improve this opportunity. 1-tf

We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Julia McDowell, wife of Mr. M. P. McDowell, which event occurred on Sunday, February 1st, 1880, after a long and painful illness. Mrs. McDowell was a lady of the true type, kind to her neighbors, affectionate to her husband and devoted to her children. Among her sons whom she has lived to raise to manhood, is Mr. Seth McDowell, clerk in Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro's. drug store.

The Ohio County News says that Sanderfur and Morton expect to visit the new school house again and camp out to save travel. Now let the HERALD suggest that Senator Hill be asked to have a special act of the Legislature passed to continue the present trustees in office and empower them to levy an additional tax to build their camp and provide for their maintenance.

2ND TIPP.

We, the trustees of school district No. 17, take pleasure in certifying that Mr. Andrew Williams, in teaching the school of said district, which closed today, has given entire satisfaction. We also certify that we are well pleased with the order and time kept in said school, and therefore take pleasure in recommending him to the public as a teacher. NATHAN COLEMAN, D. A. MILLER, REUBEN LEISURE. Trust's February 7, 1880.

Mr. E. S. Edgerton respectfully informs the citizens of Hartford and vicinity, that he intends to remain at this place and carry on the painting business in all its branches, house, sign and carriage work, graining, paper hanging, &c., done in the latest style. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction. All favors in his line will be thankfully received, and promptly attended to. E. S. EDGERTON.

Mrs. A. C. Ellis was desirous of having her husband take a premium at our fair on Friday last, but could not get him to compete. Her husband was to have a premium, she was not to be outdone, so calling in Dr. J. E. Pendleton to her assistance, she was able to present Mr. Ellis a fine boy. Mr. Ellis was prouder of this than he possibly could have been of a premium at our fair. He has christened him Wayne Griffin, in honor of our popular drug-gist.

Bargains in all wool cashmires, at Anderson's Bazar.

Go to Ford's drug store and examine the new No. 8.

Ignoreheart will sell the best machine for the least money.

King will take good notes and old machines in part pay for a genuine Singer.

Ignoreheart wants to exchange several new machines for horses or young cattle.

If you want the best sewing machine made, buy the new No. 8, Wheeler & Wilson.

Why buy an inferior machine when you can buy the genuine Singer for less money?

Why buy a common machine when King will sell you a genuine Singer for less money and on as good terms?

Why buy a second-class machine from a stranger when you can buy a genuine one at home on better terms?

Thomas Brothers, Hartford, Ky., have a variety of premium seed corn for sale. Give them a call and improve your bread and stock corn.

Turkeys, chickens, all kinds of skins and hides wanted, for which we will pay cash or goods.

W. H. WILLIAMS & SON.

After the present supply is exhausted, ladies' rousin underwear cannot be sold at anything near the prices they are now at, at Anderson's Bazar.

Thos. C. Snell, Esq., has contributed to our cabinet of curiosities some fine specimens of quartz, petrifications, &c., which he procured on a recent visit to Warren county.

Poster & Hill work with a will. Their customers to please, and they succeed admirably. They keep a fine assortment of groceries and sell at prices as low as the lowest.

John T. Wedding says that a pair of shoes for yourself, your wife and child will cost just $1.30 for the lot, at Anderson's Bazar, last Friday, and he wants it put in the HERALD.

Wm. T. Woodward, living about four miles from town, lost his house and all its contents on Saturday night. The family were not at home, and consequently nothing was saved. Mr. Woodward had a policy on his house and furniture for $1,000.

People are learning that it is cheaper to take their horses to Fields' stable where they are taken care of, than to let them stand out in the cold winter wind and mud, and occasionally break loose, leaving the owner to plod his weary way home afoot.

Wm. G. Eades, of Owensboro, representing the White Sewing Machine, has opened an office in W. H. Edson's Jewelry Store, where he will remain for an indefinite time. Persons wanting anything in the Sewing Machine line will do well to call. The ladies are especially invited to call and examine this machine.

Mr. Robt Davis brought us a piece of popular plank, yesterday, sawn from a large log and a considerable distance from the surface. It has the mark of an ax six inches broad, which had been made there at a very early day. It appears to have been made with a very wide bladed ax, while the six inches seems to have been made at one lick it is quite smooth.

Judge J. Wesley Duke, of Rockport, died on Thursday of last week, after an illness of one week, from pneumonia. His remains were interred by the grave of his first wife, in the grave yard at Milton Taylor's last Saturday. Rev. G. J. Bean held funeral services at the grave. Judge Duke was a member of the Methodist church and a very exemplary man in every respect. He leaves a wife and two children at home, a married daughter near Cornwall and a son in Evansville. Judge Duke filled many positions in life. He was elected assessor in 1854 and made a faithful officer. He filled the position of Police Judge, of Rockport, and was, for a long time prior to his death, the acting post master there. He had a host of friends and relatives who will mourn his loss.

J. P. Sanderfur returned from Frankfort last Saturday.

Miss Annie Hardwick, who has been quite sick with measles, is recovering.

Hon. E. D. Walker, of this place, one of the best lawyers in Southern Kentucky, has been in Louisville for a week past on legal business.

Mr. John F. Head, of Davies county, was present last Friday at our Tobacco and Corn Fair, and bore off the first premium on cutting leaf.

Prof. V. M. Metcalfe, of Hopkinsville, was present at our fair last Friday, and addressed a large number of the yeomanry of our county on the subject of agriculture, fertilizing, &c.

Henry Harrison, Esq., of Calhoun, Ky., representing the wholesale whisky house of J. T. Welch, was in Hartford last Friday. He represents one of the best houses in the country, and by his honest dealing, has built up a good trade in this section.

Friday last witnessed the departure of Miss Ruth Thompson for her home near Owensboro. Miss Ruth has been attending school at this place for several months past, and her sweetness of disposition and true worth of a lady very kindly endeared her to the people here, all of whom regret her departure from us.

Messrs. Henry Glover, of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse, Robt P. Hare, of the Falls City Tobacco Warehouse, W. H. Webb, of the Pickett Tobacco Warehouse, Geo. H. Simmons, of the Planter's Tobacco Warehouse, W. H. Murphy, of the Boone Tobacco Warehouse, and J. P. Vaughan, of Vaughan & Co., redriers and rehandl-ers of tobacco, Louisville, were in attendance at our Tobacco and Corn Fair last Friday.

R. C. Duncan, the boss drummer of the Green River Country, is in town, the guest of the Hartford House. Mr. Duncan represents the wholesale grocery house of Johnston, Newman & Co., Louisville.

Messrs. J. S. Smith, of the firm of C. E. Dickinson & Co., Indianapolis, manufacturers of school, church, office and bank furniture, and Joshua McKenney, of Evansville, general agent for same, were in town a day or two this week. The object of their visit here was to furnish our new school building.

Col. Ion B. Nall, the polite, popular and gifted editor of the Farmers' Home Journal, Louisville, was a visitor at our fair last Friday. After the premiums had been awarded, Col. Nall awarded a copy of the Farmers' Home Journal to Mr. D. S. C. Tichenor, of Beaver Dam, as having the next sample of cigar wrapper tobacco.

Death of A. H. Cummins.

Last Monday morning at 4 o'clock the dark mantle of death enshrouded itself around the form of our faithful old associate and brother type, Mr. A. H. Cummins, when his generous heart ceased to beat and his eyes closed in death. For a week past he had been prostrate with pneumonia, and only a short while before he breathed his last, as we sat by his bedside and watched him struggle for life, our mind carried us to our past pleasant associations with him, and our heart was only more saddened to know that he was so near his life's end, and that "life is uncertain and death is most sure," his demise was not unexpected by those who knew of his critical condition.

He was born in Maysville, Mason county, Kentucky, in 1833, and was in the 47th year of his age, not being spared the time allotted to man—three score years and ten. His life as a printer and newspaper man began in Mayville about 1845, serving his apprenticeship with Col. Sam Pike, in the old Maysville Eagle office, and being young and ambitious, he at the age of nineteen was a weekly contributor to some of the leading literary papers of New York City, and after manhood embarked in several newspaper enterprises of his own, and like most printers, has experienced prosperity and adversity, and has at last been called to his final resting place with no vast accumulation of wealth.

That he was honest, faithful, industrious and talented, is well known by his contemporaries. In his private life he was kind, generous and noble, and all that we can do in the way of respect and homage is to follow him with our deep regret and sorrowing sympathy.

From 1875 he was an attaché of this office and on until 1877, when he became foreman, and remained as such until a short time before he began the publication of the Ohio County News, nearly a year ago, which paper he has edited with ability.

He has died here among numerous friends, and he now sweetly reposes in the bosom of his loved Kentucky.

The heart-strings of a loving wife and five children, and a venerable old father and kind mother have been pierced with agony, to be alleviated only by a happy re-union in a better world. By his death the fraternity has lost an able and experienced journalist, and a large circle of acquaintances a true and valued friend.

He is gone. Peace to his ashes!

Now is Your Chance.

We have determined to close out our entire stock of dry goods, clothing, shoes, boots, hats, notions, &c., within the next 15 days, regardless of cost, with a view to quit business. We mean what we say. L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

I desire to sell all my household and kitchen furniture, and will offer extra inducements to purchasers. Call at once. L. ROSENBERG.

The Last Call.

Those owing me livery bills are again notified to come forward and settle the same. I have to pay cash for corn, hay and everything pertaining to the livery business, and am compelled to have the cash from those owing me. Persons not responding to this call will find their accounts in the hands of an officer for collection. HENRY FIELD.

Notice to Tax-Payers.

Mr. C. W. Phillips, Sheriff, is sick and unable to attend to duties, but has instructed me to make it public through the HERALD that persons who have not, must pay taxes due at once. The time is short, and the money must be collected and paid over, or the Sheriff and his deputies will not pass any taxpayer who has not paid, without the money or property out of which to make it. GEO. W. BUNGER, D. S.

Our Premium Books.

The premium books offered to our subscribers will be ready for distribution in a few days. Notice will be given when ready. One copy of either the Home Guide or Kendall's Horse Book will be given to each subscriber for 1880. Persons who were subscribers at the commencement of the year and whose time expires during the year will be entitled to a copy when they renew their subscription.

An Industrious Hen.

Thos. D. Davis, of this town has a hen that laid an egg last Sunday and on Sunday night another each with shells, and also two more eggs with a thin skin covering. She is not an over religious hen and believes in the adage "the better the day the better the deed." She also had learned that the Methodist Quarterly meeting was in session and knowing the fondness of the Methodist preachers and stewards for chickens and chicken fruit, she was desirous of doing her full share to supply them.

Alexander's Hotel, Louisville, Ky.

This popular hotel is in splendid condition and enjoys a fine run of customers from all parts of the land. Good new nice hair top beds, and everything about the house as clean as a new pin. Our old friends, Jo. B. Alexander & Co., are the proprietors, which insures to the traveler first class accommodations. Fare $2.00 per day. 6-4t

A Beautiful Sentiment.

He who forgets the spring from which he drank, and the tree under whose shade he gambled in the days of his youth, is a stranger to the sweetest impressions of the human heart, and he who fails to buy his goods at Anderson's Bazar is unwise to his best interests.

The Boys Heard From.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Feb. 8. Editor Herald:

Please send us, by telephone, a stuffed goose, two mince pies and a photograph of Anderson's Bazar.

Tenderly yours, HARRY TAYLOR.

WILLIE MAXWELL.

CENTRAL GROVE, Feb. 6.

Editor Herald:

Our school, taught by Mr. L. P. Looney, closed on Monday. Our school has been quite a success. The attendance has been good, 60 scholars enrolled. Average 28. The order has been good. The scholars have advanced well in other studies. This is the second session for Lee at this place. He has given satisfaction during both sessions, and we heartily recommend him as a successful teacher. I will say to you, Lee, persevere, and your prospects will be bright in the future. Lee, I wish you success with your studies at South Carrollton.

E. MILLER, Chairman.

The Tan-bark Excitement.

"Alpha," from Spring Lick, says: "The action of the House of Representatives in abolishing the City Measure of Tan-bark is certainly a move in the right direction. Before it passes the Senate, a petition to that honorable body will be forwarded praying for its passage. Shippers tan-bark every where favor the move, and pray for its passage. The present system is ruinous to shippers.—Courier-Journal.

A Runaway Husband.

Colonel G. P. Jolly writes that A. R. Bunn, living one mile South of Hardinsburg, Ky., left his wife some time in December. Cause unknown. He is 29 years old, and weighs about 125 pounds; complexion fair; lame in the right leg, and deaf; took with him his wife's room mare, and all the tobacco money. Any information will be thankfully received.—Commercial.

Two Organs.

Regulate first the stomach, second the liver: especially the first, so as to perform their functions perfectly and you will remove at least nineteen twentieths of all the ills that mankind is heir to, in this or any other climate. Hop Bitters is the only thing that will give perfectly healthy natural action to these two organs. 5-2t.

An Elegant Preparation.

Designed to meet the public want for a hair-dressing dressing, and restorative, is found in Parker's Hair Balsam. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes dandruff and all humors from the scalp, never fails to restore gray or faded hair to its original youthful color and beauty. Falling hair is immediately checked by its use, and it produces a growth of beautiful young hair, soft, glossy and luxuriant, that surprises everyone. These properties added to its exquisite perfume and purity of composition, render it the growing favorite of the toilet table everywhere. Sold in large bottles, at only 50 cts. and 1 dollar by J. Wayne Griffin & Bro., druggists generally. 2 cow 3m.

New Barber Shop.

The only first class shop ever in Calhoun, can be found next door L. W. Gate's law office. You can get work done on Sunday as well as any other day in the week, at very low prices. Give me a call, I am here to stay. Only 10 cts. a shave. ELIZABETH VORNO.

Investors and Patentees.

Should send for instructions, terms, references, &c., to Edison Brothers, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C., who furnish the same without charge. Edison Brothers is a well-known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1866. 50-tf

The Best Horse-book in the World.

A treatise on the horse and his diseases, by Dr. B. J. Kendall, of Enosburgh Falls, Vermont. It is nicely illustrated with 34 engravings, and is full of useful horse knowledge. Every horse owner should have a copy of it. WE WILL GIVE A COPY FREE TO EVERY SUBSCRIBER OF THE HARTFORD HERALD FOR 1880.

Dr. TUTT'S

Expectorant

IN 25 CTS. AND 51 BOTTLES.

Its properties are Demulcent, Nutritive, Balsamic, Soothing and Healing. Combining all these qualities, it is the most effective remedy in the world, ever offered to sufferers from pulmonary diseases.

DR. J. F. HAYWOOD, of New York, vouches for its efficacy.

READ WHAT HE SAYS:—

"Dear Sir:—During the year 1879 I used a hundred bottles of your Expectorant, and I can say that it cured a severe case of a very acute form of pulmonary disease. I had been suffering for several months with a cough, and had lost much of my strength. I had tried many remedies, but none did me any good until I used your Expectorant. I immediately noticed its action, and in a few days my cough ceased, and my strength returned. I can say that I never feel better than I do now. With many thanks, I am, your truly, J. F. HAYWOOD, M. D."

A NEWSPAPER PUB. WRITES.

"Office, Evening News, Augusta, Ga. Dr. TUTT'S Expectorant is a most valuable remedy for pulmonary diseases. I have used it many times, and it has cured many cases of cough, and has been a great help to many of our readers. I can say that it is a most valuable remedy, and I can recommend it to all who are suffering from pulmonary diseases. With many thanks, I am, your truly, J. F. HAYWOOD, M. D."

Had terrible NIGHT SWEATS.

"Dr. TUTT, Sir:—I have suffered for two years with a severe cough. I had tried many remedies, but none did me any good until I used your Expectorant. I immediately noticed its action, and in a few days my cough ceased, and my strength returned. I can say that I never feel better than I do now. With many thanks, I am, your truly, J. F. HAYWOOD, M. D."

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

Reader, have you caught cold? Are you unable to raise the phlegm? Have you an irritation in the throat? A sense of oppression on the lungs, with short breath? Do you have a fit of coughing on going to bed? A sharp pain now and then in the region of the heart, shivering and back? If so, our Advice is take at once a dose of Tut's Expectorant; you will soon be able to raise the phlegm. In an hour repeat the Expectorant, place a hot foot on the feet, take two of Tut's Pills. You will soon fall into a pleasant sleep and wake up in the morning, cough gone, lungs working freely, easy breathing, and the bowels moving in a natural manner. To prevent a return of these symptoms use the Expectorant several days.
